Subject: forest summit agenda
To: Andrew Picone <picone@vicnet.net.au>

Here is the 'pretty close to final' agenda. There are a few amendments to this that I cannot include as yet because are written in my diary. Copies of the final agenda will be available when registering.

Friday 11th August -

7pm - Registration
8pm Supper and Forum 1a - Tim Cadman from Native Forest Network speaking about Timber Certification. (1 hour)

Saturday 12th August -

8.00am Breakfast
8.45am 9.15am Wurrundjeri and Kulin Nation representatives welcome.
9.30am Forum 1b - continuation of Timber Certification (45mins)
10.30am - 11.45 - Forum 2 - The economics of the timber industry by Francis Gray & 'Is the logging industry woodchip driven?' by Simon Birrell
11.45am 12.10 break
12.10pm - Forum 3 Indigenious solidarity forming protocols, operating without them and past difficulties by Larry Walsh (and possibly Robbie Thorpe).
1.30pm Lunch
2.30pm Bioregional updates (brief run-downs of the campaign history, who the main players are, recent changes in the campaign, the economics of the area, strategy successes and failures and 'up-your-sleeve' plans)

5.00pm Break
5.30 Bioregional updates continued
7.30pm Dinner

Sunday 13th August -

8.00am Breakfast
8.45am 'Where to from here?' session - direction and strategy
This session will be facilitated. It is intended to look at issues such as the needs and resources of various groups and organisations, protocols within the movement (including old ones that do not get adhered to), potential allies, future strategies and a possible joint communique/media release.
11.00am- Break
11.20am - Continuation of session
1.00pm - Lunch

*After lunch activities dependant on progress of session.